

Grandstand 1 is the best choice if you want to see all the action that takes place at Murray's Corner; the final turn on the Bathurst circuit. Located on the outside of the track, this stand is a prime viewing position which traditionally sees extensive gravel trap action as the cars complete their high speed descent of the mountain and has the best view of pit entry. This stand is not covered and is best accessed through gates one, two or three with food and beverage retailers and merchandise stalls located directly behind the stand, and toilet facilities just a short walk away.

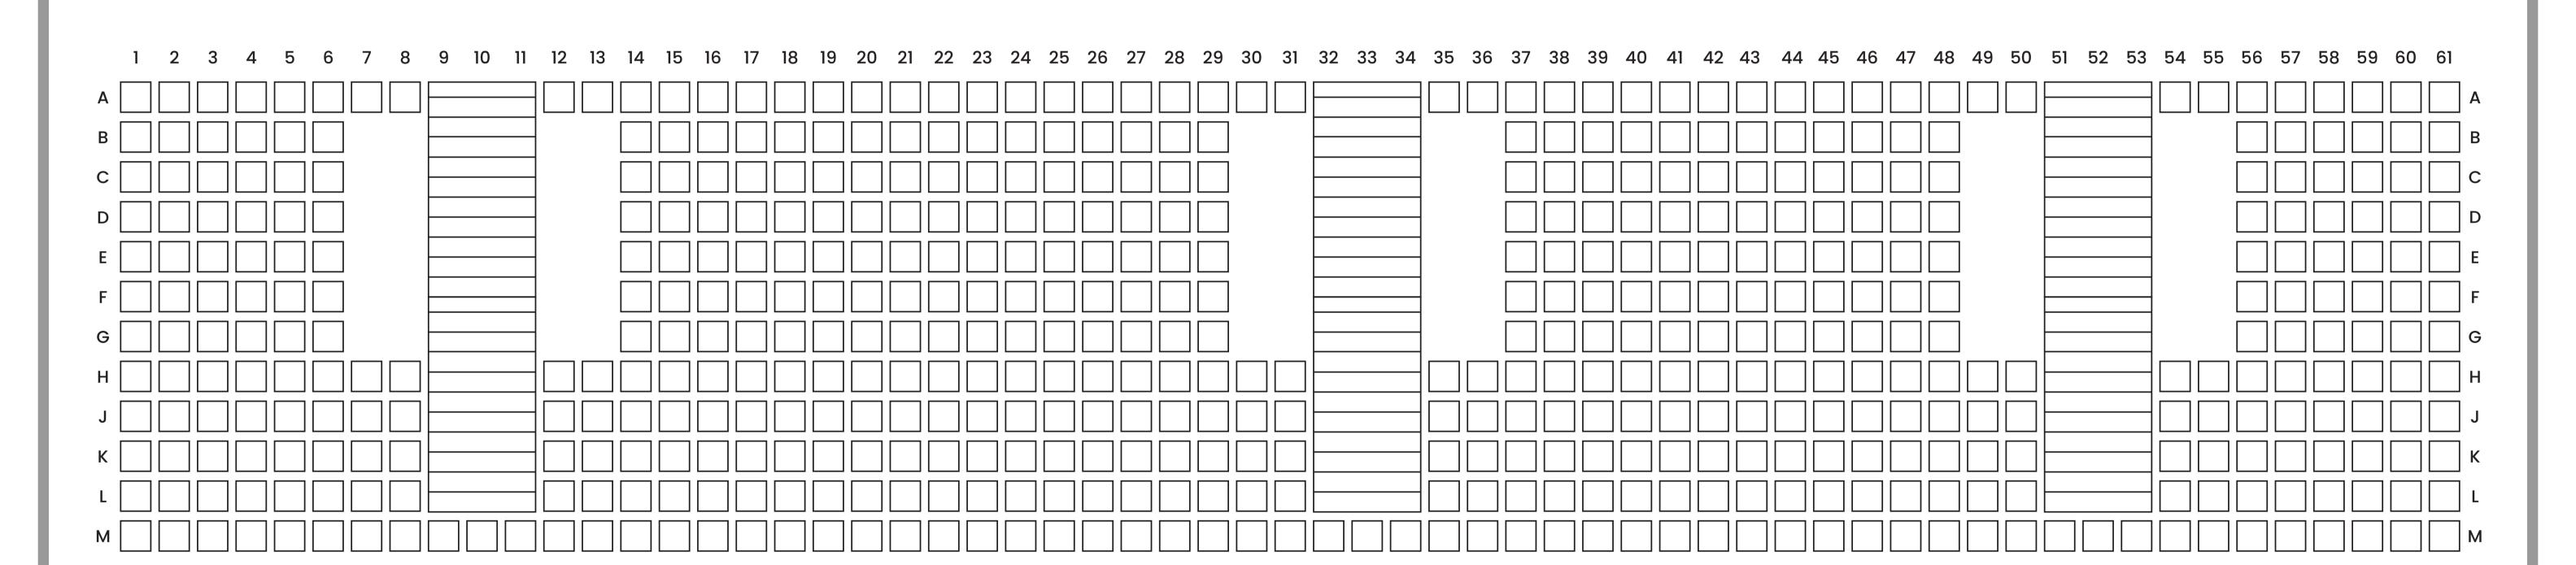

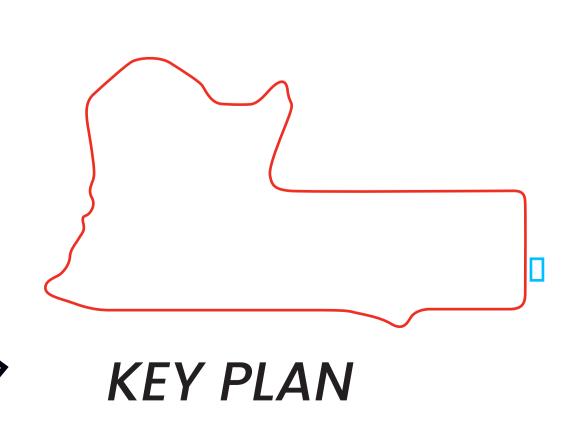

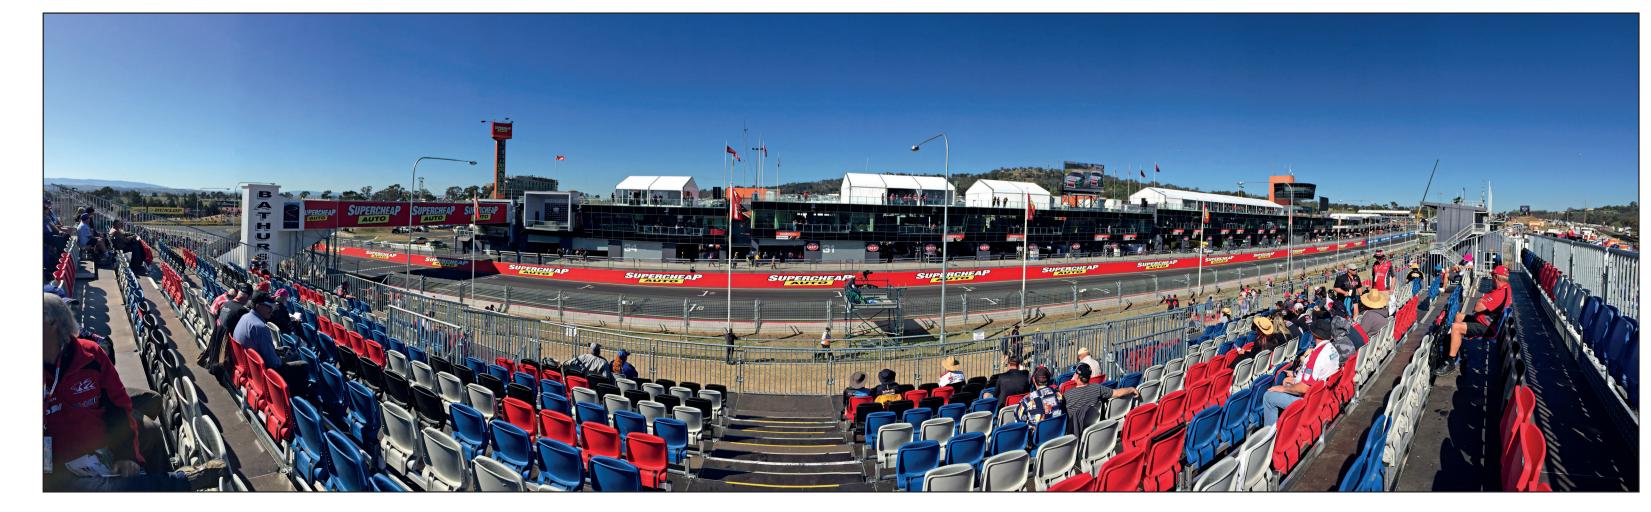

Grandstand 7 is located on the outside of the track on pit straight directly across from the podium and pit garages. This is the perfect seat to witness all the start/finish line action. These seats also enjoy a view of the big screen and are within a short walk of food and beverage retailers, and toilet. Grab your favourite teams' merchandise from the stalls within walking distance behind the stand. This stand is not covered and is best accessed through gate four.
